

Welcome Program of GCE A Level

The most awaited event by the 7th batch of A-Level students, the Welcome Program was finally celebrated on 21st of July, 2017, Friday. Everybody was already hyped up and by 10 am the program started with a proudly sung national anthem. The MCs for the day were Reeya Shrestha and Sajeet Man Rajbhandari and the official commencement of the program was by lighting the lamp and a speech by Fr. Jomon Jose, S.J., the Vice-Principal. Starting the program off with a bang, the first item on the list was a classic song called “Eh Kancha Malai” by one of the best crews of singers in St. Xavier’s, Smarika and her group. This was then followed by a mesmerizing dance by Aparajita and group. With that it was time for an entertaining welcome speech by one of the seniors namely Abhijeet Shrestha. Moving further into the program was a performance by Sirapa and group who sang Muskuraye and brought smiles on the audience faces. After this was a dance that described a fight between hip-hop and Nepali cultural dance. However, they juxtaposed and created a beautiful fusion dance on the remix song “Resham firiri” and “turned down for what”. Then came on the speech by the Dean of A-Level, Mr. Benu Gautam where he described some of the core values and officially called the AS students Xaverians. After this was another melodious group song By Pritika and group. Finally, it was the last performance of the day which was yet another dance on a Mash-up song. The program concluded with the college song after which the students proceeded to have lunch.
